TO KILL A WAR MACHINE

ABOUT THE FILM

Through real-time bodycam and phone footage, frontline activists take audiences along on their audacious raids to tear down arms factories around the UK.

Since 2020, direct action group Palestine Action have documented their operations to dismantle the companies and infrastructure supplying weapons to the ongoing genocide in Gaza.

Independent film makers Rainbow Collective have combined this cache of footage with narration by the group's founders to follow the explosive growth of one of the world's most effective and confrontational protest groups, and the backlash activists face as they incur the wrath of the British state and the arms companies operating on their soil.

SUPPORT THE FILM

We are raising funds to distribute 'To Kill A War Machine' in the UK, USA and then worldwide. The film is ready for release, but in the current hostile climate we need your help to independently bring the film to cinemas. The more we raise, the more towns and cities the film can open in.
